RETURN VISA TO SWITZERLAND

The documents may be submitted by registered mail to the above address.

If a personal delivery is preferred, please make sure to book an appointment at www.swiss-visa.ch

No applications will be accepted at the counter without prior appointment.

Required documents:

- Valid passport
- 1 passport copy of the first two pages
- 1 enclosed passport photo according to requirements → Requirements
- 1 visa application form duly completed and signed (in English, French, German, Italian or French) → Application form \(type D\)
- For persons who have lost their current Swiss residence permit or the residence permit has been stolen abroad: copy of the report of the loss or theft to the competent police station with translation in German, French, Italian or English
- For persons whose current residence permit has expired during the stay abroad: free-form written and signed statement explaining why the return to Switzerland could not take place before the permit expired
- For persons whose residence permit has been deposited in Switzerland: Copy of the confirmation from the competent cantonal migration authority that the permit has been in deposition
- Information on visa fees and payment methods can be found on our website Visa → National visa fees

The visa application is transmitted to the competent cantonal migration authority in Switzerland for decision. As soon as the application is authorized, the customers will be contacted by phone.

The Embassy has no influence on the duration of the procedure in Switzerland and can therefore not provide any information on the status of the application.
