

Student Visa

Required documents

- Three (3) Application forms Type D Visa duly filled out, dated and signed by the applicant. The visa application form must be signed by both parents in case of minor child. Click here to get to the application form
- Four (4) recent and identical photographs (consult specifications)
- Original passport + 2 copies (page with personal data) valid for at least six (6) months, with at least two blank pages, and issued within the last 10 years, and if applicable, residence card + 2 copies
- Confirmation/matriculation letter from school, university, etc. in Switzerland (original plus 1 copy)
- Statement containing exact details of the applicant's income, with official proof and/or bank statements to prove financing of the studies in Switzerland (original plus 1 copy)
- Previous diplomas and school certificates (original plus 2 copies, originals will be returned)
- Curriculum vitae, dated and signed (original and 1 copy)
- Motivation letter, dated and signed - why do you want to study in the above institution? (Original and 1 copy)
- Post study plans, dated and signed - what will you do after graduation of the studies? (Original and 1 copy)
- A written confirmation of the applicant that he/she will leave Switzerland after completion of the chosen course of study (original and 1 copy)
- Pupils & students not yet 18 years old have to provide an authorization signed by their parents, allowing them to travel to Switzerland and study there. The parents signatures need to be legalized by a notary/lawyer and the document must be translated into English, German, French, as well as a translated birth certificate of the child (Apostille may be required in certain cases)

Processing Time: After submission of the complete file, all documents are forwarded to the competent authorities in Switzerland. The processing time for the authorization of the visa can take up to 12 weeks.

Please call the Swiss Embassy in order to schedule an appointment

Fees in GEL: Please inquire once your file is complete as the Swiss representation reserves the right to adapt the amounts of the fees at any time in relation with exchange rate fluctuations.

Only complete files are accepted. If the application is not complete, a new appointment will need to be scheduled

Applicants who want to study in Austria have to submit their documents at the Austrian Embassy in Baku