

Call for Project Proposals / Human Security

The Embassy of Switzerland in Ireland is pleased to announce the first call for project proposals in the field of human security.

In the coming months, the Embassy will support one project with the aim of sustaining civilian peace building and human rights in Ireland. In accordance with Switzerland's foreign policy priorities in the field of peace and security as well as sustainable development, the Embassy is particularly interested in projects aiming at fostering reconciliation and the building of constructive relationships among communities on the island of Ireland.

The Swiss funding for the selected project will be EUR 10,000 (maximum). This financial support can fund an ongoing activity or a new one. However, the proposed project has to be operationally completed within a maximum period of eight months and a final report has to be submitted to the Embassy by the end of November 2020.

All applicants should submit their proposals to the e-mail address dublin@eda.admin.ch by Sunday, 16th February 2020. The project proposal should include the following information and should not exceed four pages:

- Brief description of the organisation and past projects
- Actions, aim, geographical location of the project and expected results
- Need and relevance of the proposed project activities
- Targeted beneficiaries for the project actions
- Detailed budget sheet of the project with indication of any other public or private funding for the project
- Risks and challenges that might arise during the project implementation

A one-page overview with the following information should be attached to the proposal:

- Name of the organization (contact person, telephone, email, office address)
- Project title
- Project durations in months
- Project starting date and ending date
- Number of beneficiaries (direct, possibly indirect)

Failure to provide the complete documentation may result in exclusion from the call. Please note: upon reception of the proposals, the Embassy may contact you to ask for further details on the project. This does not imply that your project will be chosen. Please note: based on the project description, a contract between the partner organisation and the Embassy will be signed.

The Embassy of Switzerland in Ireland is looking forward to receiving your proposal.
